Would you like to make a gift to Bletchley Park?

---

Bletchley Park receives no public funding. To date, the Trust has raised over £1 million in its fight for survival. A further £4.5 million are needed now to secure a long-term future for this historic site.

If you would like to be part of Bletchley Park's future, here are some of the ways in which your support can make a difference:

- £10 pays for the support costs for one day of a volunteer at the Park — guides, gardeners, caterers, archivists, etc.
- £50 will help pay for the design costs of the planned new development which total around £40,000.
- £100 would pay for a day's work restoring one of the wartime huts.

Every donation, large or small, will help preserve and revitalise Bletchley Park. If you would like to help, please complete the following in capital letters:

Gift Aid Declaration: If you are a UK tax payer, your payment is eligible for Gift Aid. This is a straightforward way of allowing the Trust to reclaim the tax that you incur on payments to us. Gift Aid is not another payment. It simply allows us to claim additional funds from the Government. Once a Gift Aid declaration is made, any gifts that you make now or in the future will be covered for as long as you remain an income tax payer. Please help the Trust to receive vital additional funds by signing this simple declaration confirming that you are a UK income tax payer.

I would like Bletchley Park Trust to reclaim the tax on any donations that I make. I have paid an amount of UK income tax or capital gains tax equal to any tax reclaimed.
