

B- Block Trail

You need to start on the top floor

What would the Germans be doing in a place like this? Can you see the Enigma machine?

Can you spot this unwelcome visitor?

What is the date on this box?

How much cheese would you have had for your weekly ration?

Can you find this hat?

What do you think this is? There are lots of them around this section of the museum, but they may look different.

Can you find this shiny fish?

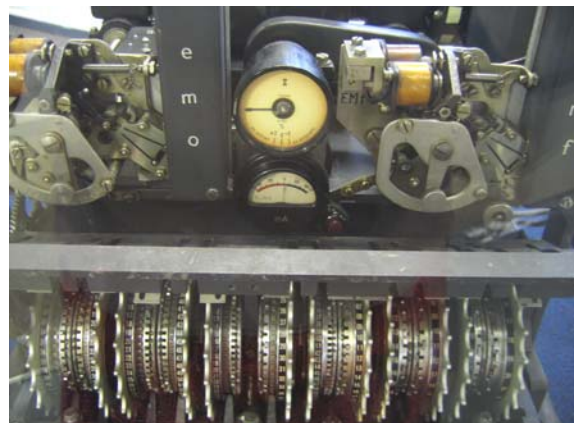

What do you think these are for?

How about these?

Now Go Downstairs

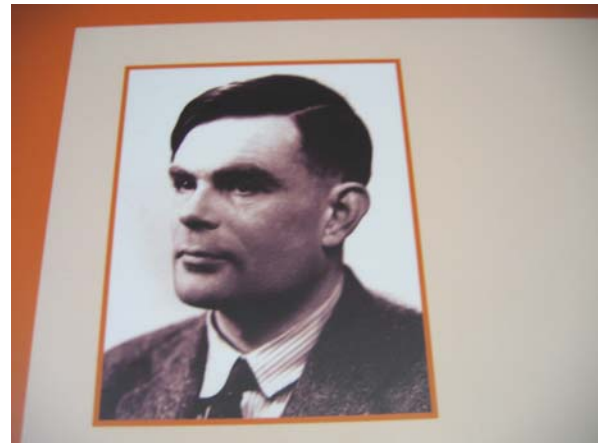

This is one of the main machines used by the Germans to send secret codes during the war. What was it called?

In which year was this very valuable Enigma machine stolen?

This man was very important at Bletchley Park. Can you find out his name and what he did?

This rather unusual mask was probably worn by a girl. What would she have been doing?
